Process and Procedures for Vetting or Verifying Resource Suitability:

1. Initial Review:

- Teachers proposing a new resource must submit it to the Resource Selection Committee using a standard Resource Evaluation Form.
- This includes textbooks, library books, and digital resources.

2. Committee Evaluation:

- The Resource Selection Committee assesses the resource based on:
  - Curriculum relevance
  - Age-appropriateness
  - Cultural sensitivity
  - Absence of censored content
  - Factual accuracy
  - Pedagogical effectiveness

3. Content Verification:

- All materials are reviewed against the defined resource selection criteria to identify any sensitive or censored content.
- Resources that do not meet all criteria are either:
  - Rejected
  - Recommended for modification (content covered, replaced, or redacted)

4. Consultation (if needed):

- If ambiguity exists, the committee may consult with:
  - School leadership
  - Local education authorities
  - Cultural advisors

5. Approval and Documentation:

- Approved resources are recorded and maintained in digital format.
- Each entry includes a summary review, approval date, reviewer names, and any content redactions or notes.

6. Periodic Re-evaluation:

• All approved resources are re-evaluated at least once in every year or when curriculum updates occur.

7. Handling Challenges or Concerns:

- Any concerns regarding learning resources may be raised by staff, students, or parents through a written submission to the Resource Selection Committee.
- Upon receiving a concern, the committee will:
  - > Acknowledge receipt of the concern within a reasonable timeframe (typically within one week).
  - Conduct a fair and thorough review of the resource in question.
  - > Communicate a written response, including the committee's decision and rationale, within a reasonable period (generally within two to three weeks of receiving the concern).

Resource selection committee:

The resource selection committee should be set up revised at the beginning of each academic year. The committee will be headed by the school principal along with the heads of the departments, subject head from each cohort, librarians and Senior Leadership Team.
